and

The Sub-Inspector of Police,
Narsapur Rural Police Station,
West Godavari at Narsapur & others.

.... Respondents

:: O R D E R ::

Counsel for the respondents : Government Pleader for Home

Date: 22.09.2006

Per G.S. SINGHVI, CJ

Letter dated 02.09.2006 sent by Errampalli Rathnamani, resident of Christianpet, Palakol, West Godavari District was treated by one of us (the Chief Justice) as a writ petition in public interest.

Learned Government Pleader for Home says that the girl namely E. Jemimah Queeni, daughter of the representationist was traced out on 06.09.2006 and has been handed over to the parents. He further gave out that Crime No.99 of 2006 has been registered at Narsapur Rural Police Station and investigation is going on.

As regards the allegation made against the Sub-Inspector, Narsapur Rural Police Station, learned Government Pleader submitted that departmental enquiry is being conducted in the matter and appropriate action will be taken within a period of two weeks.

In view of the statement made by the learned Government Pleader, no further order is required to be passed in this case and the writ petition is disposed of as infructuous with liberty to the representationist to pursue her cause against the concerned Sub-Inspector by making departmental representation and/or by filing complaint before an appropriate forum.
